DIVISION OF DENTAL PUBLIC HEALTH
& PEDIATRIC DENTISTRY

The Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC seeks applicants for a full-time, non-tenure track position at the rank of associate professor of clinical dentistry in the Division of Dental Public Health and Pediatric Dentistry.

Responsibilities include participating in various management activities of a large scale public health prevention and treatment, research and service grant that provides prevention and treatment services to children ages 0 to 5. Some teaching at the pre- or post-doctoral level at School-affiliated sites may be required.

Candidates must have a DDS or DMD degree or equivalent, have completed post-doctoral training in pediatric dentistry and be licensed to practice in the State of California. Candidates with additional education (MS, MPH) in public health and statistics, and a minimum of five years experience in large scale community-based research with publications of results are strongly encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, and arrange to have at least three letters of reference sent to:
