The Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC seeks applicants for a full-time, non-tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor of Clinical Dentistry in the Division of Dental Public Health and Pediatric Dentistry.

Responsibilities will include participation in various management activities of a large-scale public health prevention and treatment research and service grant that provides prevention and treatment services to children age 0 to 5. Duties include selection, supervision and evaluation of up to 5 MSW student interns for provision of clinical services who will provide psychosocial assessment, case management, and brief treatment for patients and families accessing the CHAMP program. The faculty member will supervise the interns in the development and maintenance of positive community relations; building referral options and seeking new resources; ensuring that clients and their families are identified; organizing, coordinating, and conducting reviews of medical, oral health, and psychosocial resources provided to clients and/or their families; implementing interventions and services utilizing community resources in a timely fashion; managing detailed client records and generating all required reports for the external funder as well as maintaining effective communications with colleagues within the Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC and the USC School of Social Work and community partners. Some teaching at the pre- or post-doctoral level at the School's affiliated sites will be required.

Candidates must have a Master's degree in social work; be licensed to practice in the State of California; have a minimum of 5 years experience in healthcare, hospital, and/or community-based medical settings; and knowledge of community-based programs. Candidates with prior supervision experience with student interns, knowledge of Dental Care systems, experience in large scale community-based research programs are strongly encouraged to apply. Bilingual candidates fluent in English and Spanish are also strongly encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, and arrange to have at least three letters of reference to:
