DIVISION OF DENTAL PUBLIC HEALTH & PEDIATRIC DENTISTRY

The Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC seeks applicants for a full-time, non-tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor of Clinical Dentistry in the Division of Dental Public Health and Pediatric Dentistry.

Responsibilities will include helping to set up an off-site four chair dental clinic that includes a sedation suite, teaching students and residents clinically and didactically at the predoctoral and postdoctoral levels, and being part of a large community project focusing on preventing oral health disease and providing oral health care for young children ages 0 to 5.

Candidates must have a DDS or DMD degree; a certificate from a CODA-accredited graduate pediatric dentistry program; be licensed to practice in the State of California; and have ACLS certification. Past experience in caring for children 0 to 5 years of age, special needs and underserved patients in an out-patient setting and the OR is required. Candidates with additional training and experience in community oral health are strongly encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, and arrange to have at least three letters of reference to:
