The Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC seeks applicants for a full-time, non-tenure-track position at the rank of assistant or associate professor of clinical dentistry in the Division of Dental Public Health and Pediatric Dentistry.

Responsibilities will include managing a four chair dental clinic at an affiliated site that includes a sedation suite, clinical and didactic teaching at the predoctoral and postdoctoral levels, and being a part of a large community project focusing on caring for the oral health of children aged zero to five.

Candidates must have a DDS or DMD degree, a California dental license, certificate of specialization in pediatric dentistry, ACLS certification and be a Diplomate or Board Candidate of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry. Past experience in caring for children 0 to 5 years of age, special needs and underserved patients in out-patient settings and the OR is required. Individuals with additional training and experience in community oral health are strongly encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, and arrange to have at least three letters of reference sent to:
