

Herman Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC

DIVISION OF PERIODONTOLOGY, DIAGNOSTIC SCIENCES AND DENTAL HYGIENE

The Herman Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC seeks applicants for a full-time, clinical-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor of Clinical Dentistry in the Division of Periodontology, Diagnostic Sciences and Dental Hygiene.

We are seeking an ideal candidate who will be successful in a collaborative academic environment within an innovative learner-centered curriculum. The ideal candidate must have a DDS or DMD degree or equivalent and completion of a CODA-accredited advanced dental education program. Candidates with expertise in diverse disciplines, such as periodontology, orthodontics, oral pathology, oral medicine and orofacial pain, will be considered. Preference will be given to candidates with a valid California license or eligibility for California licensure, academic experience in teaching multiple disciplines, as well as a Masters or Ph.D. degree in biology or related fields. The selected candidate will be encouraged to create innovative teaching with a strong support from our division faculty of diverse disciplines and experiences. Opportunity to develop independent research programs is available to a suitable candidate.

Interested applicants must submit a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, and arrange to have at least three letters of reference sent to:
