The Herman Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC seeks applicants for a full-time, Pediatric Dentistry Program Director for a clinical track position at the open rank of Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of Clinical Dentistry.

The right candidate will join a school known for its legendary legacy of excellence for over 120 years, an embracing community, an innovative and upbeat approach to dental education, and a multitude of opportunities for professional and personal growth. Located in the heart of one of the most vibrant metropolitan areas, USC is Los Angeles’ largest private employer.

Responsibilities include directing the clinical and didactic training for 20 pediatric dentistry residents located at the school and partner clinical sites, including multiple renowned children’s hospitals, uniquely designed Ostrow-owned mobile clinics and Ostrow-affiliated dental and medical clinics where collaborations with pediatric medical residents caring for high-risk infants, children, adolescents and pregnant mothers is routine.

Applicants must have a DDS or DMD degree, a California dental license, a certificate of specialization in pediatric training and be a Diplomate of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry. PALS certification is also needed. There is an opportunity for Faculty Practice.

USC values diversity and is committed to equal opportunity in employment. Women and men, and members of all racial and ethnic groups, are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants must submit a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, and arrange to have at least three letters of reference sent to:

Dr. Roseann Mulligan
Division Chair, Division of Dental Public Health & Pediatric Dentistry
Herman Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC
C/O Marina Sahakian
