

Herman Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC

DIVISION OF PERIODONTOLOGY, DIAGNOSTIC SCIENCES AND DENTAL HYGIENE

The Herman Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC seeks qualified applicants for a part-time 50% faculty position at the rank of Clinical Assistant Professor in the Division of Periodontology, Diagnostic Sciences and Dental Hygiene.

An ideal candidate will have a DDS or DMD degree, or equivalent dental degree, and a valid California dental license. Preference will be given to candidates with post-graduate training in periodontology, and academic experience in didactic and clinical teaching in pre-doctoral periodontics.

The primary responsibility of the candidate is teaching in the pre-doctoral program in periodontics with a focus on periodontal diagnosis and risk assessment, treatment planning, and non-surgical periodontal therapy. The candidate will have an opportunity to be involved in the Advanced Periodontics program and other sections, such as oral medicine, oral pathology, and restorative dentistry.

For information and to apply, interested applicants must submit a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, and arrange to have three letters of reference sent to: <https://usccareers.usc.edu>
